

Day: 15 May, 2018

Topic: Let us clean our ways – Cleanliness Drive inside hospital complex and road between Gate no. 3 & gate no. 5, entry gates of GMCH (8.00am) Supervision of Dr. Ashwani K. Dalal

Taking forward the Government initiative of Swatch Bharat Abhiyan, College of nursing GMCH 32, Chandigarh with a mission of creating awareness about social causes, organised a cleanliness drive in hostel complex and road between gate no.3 and gate no.5, GMCH complex. In lieu of International Nurses week celebration starting the journey at 8.00am the cleanliness drive from hostel complex under the supervision of Dr. Ashwani K. Dalal DMS, Nursing department from hospital, faculty from College of Nursing, Members of Nursing Welfare Association and students from College of Nursing. The cleanliness drive rallied through road between gate no. 3 & Gate no.5 covering a stretch of approx 2 kilometres, the volunteers collected heaps of garbage & dispose them appropriately in black bags. The cleanliness drive concluded with volunteers taking Swatch Bharat Abhiyan - A Pledge of keeping their surrounding clean & tidy today & everyday.

Keeping the eye upon air and water pollution in our surroundings, GMCH 32 has taken an initiative for reduction of air and water pollution. Nursing welfare association members as well as faculty members and students from college of nursing created awareness regarding reduction of air and water pollution and no honking with the help of posters in the hospital premises.