

PERIOD OF PRE-PATHOGENESIS PERIOD OF PATHOGENESIS DISEASE PROCESS The course of the disease in man \rightarrow Before man is involved DEATH Host Agent Chronic state Defect Disability Illness Clinical horizon Signs & symptoms Environmental Factors (known and unknown) Immunity Tissue and and Bring agent and physiologic changes resistance host together or Stimulus or agent becomes produce a disease established and increases RECOVERY provoking stimulus by multiplication In the Interaction of host Host reaction human and stimulus host Early Discernible Advanced Convalepathogeneses -> early lesions disease scence LEVELS OF SECONDARY PRIMARY PREVENTION TERTIARY PREVENTION PREVENTION PREVENTION MODES OF HEALTH EARLY DIAGNOSIS SPECIFIC DISABILITY REHABILITATION INTERVENTION PROMOTION PROTECTION AND TREATMENT LIMITATION

FIG. 8

Natural history of disease

(From Preventive Medicine for the Doctor in His Community, by Leavell & Clark with permission of McGraw-Hill Book Co.)